

Peace Music Ministry

Ric Jaeggi, Director of Music

The Music Ministry at Peace wishes to thank you for taking a moment to read this brochure describing the many musical offerings of Peace Lutheran Church.

We trust you have found several concerts to your liking and marked them on your calendar. There is always a light reception following performances. It is our hope that you will stay, enjoy the refreshments and greet the performers.

“Music at Peace” concerts accept free-will donations unless noted otherwise. The gifts collected go to support the annual music budget of the Church. Purchasing music, tuning pianos and artists’ honorariums are just a few examples of the many costs of producing “Music at Peace.” All gifts are tax deductible.

Most importantly, we thank you for the contribution of your attendance. Your presence helps as we share the joy that is music from the past, the present and look to the future for music yet to be composed.

Music At Peace

2018-2019

With great joy, we offer this celebration of music as uniquely presented by Peace Lutheran Church for the 2018-2019 Concert season.

We have many talented people within our church family and our friends. We are pleased to share those talents with you and your friends.

Please save the dates now and come find musical sanctuary in our beautiful Worship Center.

All are welcome, and so we issue an open invitation. Come share moments of exquisite joy, sounds of silence and orderly cacophony.

Lee Van Asten & More Friends
November 18, 2018
at 2:00pm

As faithful as the Geyser in Yellowstone National Park, we get together with Lee and his myriad of highly talented musician friends. Entertaining us with vocal and keyboard talent, Lee is always good for some grand humor.

Please plan to attend an afternoon of secular and sacred music! Guests begin arriving an hour early. Come get your favorite seat.

Peace Festival Choir Advent Concert
The Songs of Mary
December 2, 2018, at 3:00pm

Come explore the songs we know of the Mother of Jesus. There will be songs of Mary at the cradle as written by Christiansen, Ballet, Cox and others. We will touch upon the prayer of Hannah and how it ties into Mary's Magnificat. The celebration in song will end with Herbert Howells' Magnificat Collegium Regale, written for the King's College, Cambridge. We also are pleased to feature Pastor Walter Still as our teacher for this event. Come as we unfold the mystery of the songs of Mary.

Palm City Cellos
with Southwest Florida Symphony
Cellist, Susannah Kelly
January 13, 2019, at 4:00pm

We welcome Susannah Kelly, a gifted musician that marries her talent to the marvelous sound that only a Cello is capable of making. Her credits include many local and regional orchestras, and she is the Past Principal Cellist for the Florida Southwest Symphony.

Inspired and directed by Susannah Kelly, the Palm City Cellos was formed in 2013, as an opportunity for life-long cello enthusiasts to meet and perform a varied repertoire of music in local venues. Members are residents of Lee County and include full-time residents and snowbirds alike. We welcome them and their unique offerings to our concert series.

A free will offering will be accepted at each concert, and of course, we will gather in the Good Samaritan Hall where you can greet the performers and enjoy the wine and cheese reception.

A cookie reception will following the Advent concert, The Songs of Mary.

Prayer as Experienced
Through Music
February 24, 2019 at 3:00pm

Prayers set to music by Jankowski, Rozsa, Steinberg, and Hopson. The final musical prayer will be "Hear My Prayer," a Sacred Cantata by Felix Mendelssohn which will conclude the concert. There are so many familiar words treated so differently that each will touch your heart, soul and mind in a most unique way. Prayer is a key component in life, and we are excited to share musical prayers with you and your friends.

Janet Carter and HER Friends
Friday Night
March 8, 2019 at 7:00pm

Special night, special event. This evening concert features Peace Lutheran Church's own Janet Carter and HER Friends. We have enjoyed her musical talents on many Sunday's and countless concerts throughout her teaching career. She brings a breadth of solo repertoire and her dear friend Matt Koller who will share his tenor voice. There will also be 4 hands, one piano music! Janet's extraordinary accompanying ability and her, until now hidden from us, solo skills. Eat an early dinner and enjoy the concert.
