

Katie Elkin

ELCA Global Church Sponsorship

Campaign Interpreter for “Always Being Made New: The Campaign for the ELCA”

Katie Elkin is a recently returned ELCA Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGM) Volunteer. The YAGM program invites young adults ages 21-29 into a year of international service with ELCA companion churches in 14 different countries. Katie served in Farafangana, Madagascar and taught English at three Lutheran schools – a primary school, a high school, and a school for visually impaired students. While in Farafangana, Katie enjoyed living in community with her global siblings and singing in her church’s choir! Katie graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2017, with degrees in Biology and Psychology. Katie is currently serving as a Campaign Interpreter for “Always Being Made New: The Campaign for the ELCA,” and she is excited to have the opportunity to share her stories of accompaniment from the past year with her home communities in the Southeast.

If your congregation is interested in hearing about Katie’s transformative journey, please email kathryn.elkin@elca.org, or call (704) 773-6557, to schedule a visit.
